European Cultural Heritage Summit
2022 Prague

The European Cultural Heritage Summit 2022 is held from 25 to 27 September in Prague, marking the 30th anniversary of the inscription of its historic centre on the World Heritage List.

The Prague Summit brings together heritage stakeholders, policy-makers at all levels of governance, civil society organisations as well as heritage enthusiasts from all across Europe and beyond.

It is our wish to use this Summit as a platform to mobilise Europe’s heritage ecosystem to jointly act for a more peaceful and sustainable future of Europe’s society, economy and environment. In the face of the deplorable invasion of Ukraine by Russia, which Europa Nostra firmly condemns, we are indeed ever more convinced of the urgent need to place Europe’s common values and shared cultural heritage at the very heart of our democracies and of what brings us together.

The European Cultural Heritage Summit is organised by Europa Nostra and Europa Nostra’s Representation in the Czech Republic with the cooperation and support of the European Commission and the Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic, as part of the official programme of the Czech Presidency of the Council of the European Union. It is also a contribution to the European Year of Youth 2022 and the New European Bauhaus initiative. The Summit is partially funded by the Creative Europe Programme of the European Union.

Žofín Palace, Slovanský ostrov 226, Praha 1

The Prague Summit will culminate with an engaging full-day debate addressing some of the most pressing challenges facing the heritage ecosystem in Europe, such as the need to mobilise forces and voices in solidarity with Ukraine’s endangered cultural heritage, the role of cultural heritage in fostering peace and solidarity within our societies, and the values of beauty and sustainability for an inclusive green transformation.

The Policy Agora will benefit from contributions from a wide variety of public and private heritage stakeholders, policy-makers at all levels, young heritage professionals and cultural actors.
Among the high-level contributors are Mariya Gabriel, European Commissioner for Innovation, Research, Culture, Education and Youth; Vlastislav Ouroda, Vice-Minister for Cultural Heritage of the Czech Republic; Oleksandr Tkachenko, Minister of Culture and Information Policy of Ukraine (remotely); Vasco Alves Cordeiro, President of the European Committee of the Regions (remotely); Kostas Bakoyannis, Mayor of Athens; and Hermann Parzinger, Executive President of Europa Nostra. We shall also share important video messages by Lilyana Pavlova, Vice-President of the European Investment Bank, and Carlos Moedas, Mayor of Lisbon.

The full Programme of the Agora can be read here.

The Policy Agora, organised in cooperation with the European Commission, the Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic and District Prague 1, is a contribution to the European Year of Youth 2022 and the New European Bauhaus, of which Europa Nostra is a proud civil society partner.

The Agora will be livestreamed at www.europanostra.org/european-heritage-summit

The Future is Heritage Summit

On the occasion of the European Cultural Heritage Summit in Prague, a four-day capacity-building event for young heritage students and professionals is organised by the initiative “The Future is Heritage”, powered by Erfgoed Gelderland and Erfgoed Brabant, two prominent Dutch member organisations of Europa Nostra, in cooperation and with the support of Europa Nostra and ESACH – European Students’ Association for Cultural Heritage.

The Future is Heritage Summit features intergenerational workshops, cultural visits as well as a European Heritage Masterclass on “Climate Heritage Digital Advocacy”, organised with Europa Nostra, the Climate Heritage Network Youth Forum and ESACH.

Designed by, with and for young people, the Masterclass aims at building the capacities of young professionals in using digital technologies to sensitise policy-makers on climate heritage issues and is thus an important contribution to the European Year of Youth 2022.

ABOUT

Europa Nostra

Europa Nostra is the European voice of civil society committed to safeguarding and promoting cultural and natural heritage. It is a pan-European federation of heritage NGOs, supported by a wide network of public bodies, private companies and individuals, covering more than 40 countries. Founded in 1963, it is today recognised as the largest and the most representative heritage network in Europe, maintaining close relations with the European Union, the Council of Europe, UNESCO and other international bodies.

Europa Nostra campaigns to save Europe’s endangered monuments, sites and landscapes, in particular through the 7 Most Endangered Programme. It celebrates excellence through the European Heritage Awards / Europa Nostra Awards. Europa Nostra actively contributes to the definition and implementation of European strategies and policies related to heritage, through a participatory dialogue with European Institutions and the coordination of the European Heritage Alliance.

Europa Nostra is among the official partners of the New European Bauhaus initiative developed by the European Commission, and is the Regional Co-Chair of the Climate Heritage Network for Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States.

Europa Nostra Czech Republic

Europa Nostra’s country representation in the Czech Republic is coordinated by the Czech Association of Castle and Manor House Owners. The main goal of the Association is the preservation of privately-owned castles, chateaux, manor houses, parks and other historical monuments in the Czech Republic. It strives to achieve this through active cooperation with all relevant organisations from the field, both national and foreign, and through facilitating the exchange of know-how and experience in the field of rescue, repair and maintenance of castles, manor houses, parks and other historical monuments, as well as obtaining financial support from state and international bodies aimed at saving, repairing and maintaining castles, manor houses, parks and other historical monuments.
Creative Europe

Creative Europe is the EU programme that supports the cultural and creative sectors, enabling them to increase their contribution to Europe’s society, economy and living environment. With a budget of €2.4 billion for 2021-2027, it supports organisations in the fields of heritage, performing arts, fine arts, interdisciplinary arts, publishing, film, TV, music, and video games as well as tens of thousands of artists, cultural and audio-visual professionals.

Czech Presidency of the Council of the European Union

The Czech Presidency of the Council of the European Union (1 July to 31 December 2022) will focus on five closely linked priority areas: managing the refugee crisis and Ukraine’s post-war recovery, energy security, strengthening Europe’s defence capabilities and cyberspace security, strategic resilience of the European economy and resilience of democratic institutions. The Presidency has prepared numerous cultural events that will take place not only in Prague but also in other places of the Czech Republic. Many events are also taking place in Brussels, and other European cities. The European Cultural Heritage Summit was included in the official programme of the Czech Presidency of the European Union.

New European Bauhaus

The New European Bauhaus is a creative and interdisciplinary initiative that connects the European Green Deal to our living spaces and experiences. The New European Bauhaus initiative calls on all of us to imagine and build together a sustainable and inclusive future that is beautiful for our eyes, minds, and souls. Beautiful are the places, practices, and experiences that are enriching, inspired by art and culture, responding to needs beyond functionality; sustainable, in harmony with nature, the environment, and our planet; inclusive, encouraging a dialogue across cultures, disciplines, genders and ages. Europa Nostra is a proud and active partner of the New European Bauhaus initiative.

European Year of Youth 2022

The European Year of Youth 2022 aims at highlighting the importance of European youth to build a better future – greener, more inclusive and digital. It provides a backdrop for the youth with numerous opportunities to learn, share their vision, meet people and engage in activities all over Europe, catalysing a forward movement with confidence and hope in a post-pandemic perspective. Europa Nostra is a proud and active partner of the European Year of Youth.

The visual identity of the European Cultural Heritage Summit 2022 in Prague first drew inspiration from the art of Bohemian glass and crystal making, with its rich past and lively present - an important element of Czechia’s and Europe’s cultural heritage. This materialised here in the shape of a complex rosette that points to the universal notion of perfection and beauty.

At the same time, its orderly structured composition resembles that of a mandala and thus symbolises the pursuit of tranquility and peace. Entwined within the rosette shape are growing plant buds - symbolising youth and hope - or paintbrushes which refer to fine art.

In the overlaying ‘watercolour’ ovals, one would also dare to see the afterimage of clouds or even isotherms on a weather map, which - together with the obvious connotation of a wind rose - are a signal to climate change concerns with culture serving as a ‘gasp of air’ for European people and decision-makers.

The whole key-visual is meant to evoke the feeling of the immersive beauty, harmony and soothing power of cultural heritage versus today’s strained, unsettled world and the hectic life of individuals.
