EUROPEAN CULTURAL HERITAGE AGORA

WP 6 - Online, Media and Promotional Outputs 2023 Deliverables D15

With the aim of giving high visibility to and maximising the impact of the initiatives and results of the Agora network project as well as achieving greater engagement with cultural heritage stakeholders, a wide set of communication and dissemination activities were undertaken, targeting our network, non-members of our network, media professionals and the general public.

The Europa Nostra website and social media channels were extensively used. The European Cultural Heritage Agora online platform, featuring relevant information, all the news and the main outcomes of the project, was regularly updated. Digital newsletters and special announcements were prepared and widely distributed.

Media campaigns were developed and implemented, including the preparation and dissemination of media releases in various European languages. Media articles, opinion articles and interviews were released by leading media outlets from various European countries.

A variety of promotional tools were produced and widely disseminated.

1) Online Outputs 2023

a) Europa Nostra Website

The Europa Nostra website is one of the main channels for communicating the activities and results as well as sharing knowledge and best practices related to the Agora network project. News items and events as well as relevant information and documents were regularly posted. The homepage, including the action buttons, was updated regularly, spotlighting important calls, announcements, initiatives and events related to the Agora project.

- The Europa Nostra website attracted 108,113 visitors and obtained 250,630 page views (until 13/12)

- The Agora online platform – featuring relevant information, all the news, the main outcomes and the latest developments related to the project as well as a section to interact and share information, data and best practices through social media – was regularly updated. Some 50 Agora-related news items were produced and published.

- A new website section dedicated to the European Cultural Heritage Summit 2023 in Venice – including general information, the programme, the online registration and the partners of the Summit as well as detailed information about the main events of the Summit, including the programme booklets and the video recordings – was created and published on the Europa Nostra website, and regularly updated.

- The Policy section of the website was re-resigned and fully updated, featuring three new webpages dedicated to the following topics: European Heritage Hub Project; Cultural Heritage and Climate Action; and Engaging Citizens for Heritage. The European Heritage Alliance webpage and the Institutional Partners webpage were also completely updated.

- The Stand with Ukraine webpage was created and regularly updated.
- The Europa Nostra Milestones webpage was regularly updated.

- Some 900 posts related to the Agora project, featuring appealing photos, visuals and/or videos, were prepared and posted on social media. The majority of the posts achieved good engagement levels, while posts about the key events and activities reached high engagement levels (see a couple of examples below).

The screenshot shows the X (formerly Twitter) mobile interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation links: Home, Explore, Notifications (20+), Messages, Lists, Bookmarks, Communities, Premium, Profile, and More. Below this is a blue 'Post' button. The main area displays a post by 'Europa Nostra @europanostra'. The post content is: "Bettany Hughes, 2018 laureate historian & host of 📺 series #TreasuresoftheWorld 🏛 joined us online stating that “a European Cultural Citizenship is possible, but it should never be mono-cultural” & confirming she will support the #VeniceManifesto! #EuropeanHeritageSummit". Below the text is a photograph of a panel discussion in a grand hall. A screen on the stage shows a video feed of Bettany Hughes. The post has 15.5K views. The right side of the screen shows a search bar, trending topics like 'Live on X', 'Portugal trends', and a messages inbox.

a) Opinion Articles and Interviews

- At least 6 opinion articles and extended interviews were prepared and released, namely:
 - Joint opinion article by European Commissioner Mariya Gabriel and Europa Nostra's Secretary General Sneška Quaedvlieg-Mihailović calling for stronger support for cultural heritage and its vital role for our society and our future, published by the leading French daily newspaper L'Opinion (14/04/2023) (in French).

The screenshot shows a news article from L'Opinion. The top navigation bar includes links for 'A la une', 'Economie', 'Politique', 'International' (which is underlined in red), and 'Opinions'. On the left, there's a sidebar with links to 'Menu', 'l'Opinion', 'WSJ', 'l'Opinion Week-end', 'Vidéos', 'Le Journal', 'Événements', and 'Newsletters'. The main content features a headline: '«Les 7 sites patrimoniaux les plus menacés en Europe pour 2023» – par Mariya Gabriel et Sneška Quaedvlieg-Mihailovic'. Below the headline is a quote: '« Nous appelons à l'union et à la mobilisation des acteurs de terrain – privés et publics – pour faire en sorte que notre riche héritage nourrisse notre présent, et soit fécond pour notre avenir commun »'. The text is attributed to 'Publié le 14 avril 2023 à 06:00 - Maj 7 août 2023 à 11:34' and 'Mariya Gabriel, Sneška Quaedvlieg-Mihailovic'. To the right of the text is a photograph of a large bronze statue of a man holding a sword, standing on a pedestal in a snowy landscape. Below the photo is a caption: 'Le Parc des statues à Budapest, en Hongrie, est l'un des sept sites patrimoniaux les plus menacés en 2023 selon Europa Nostra et la Banque européenne d'investissement. - Sipa press'. There are also social media sharing icons for X, LinkedIn, and others.

- Exclusive interview with Europa Nostra's President Cecilia Bartoli, entitled "The quality of our lives is created and shaped by our culture", published by the largest Czech classical music magazine Opera Plus (02/05/2023) (in Czech & English). In this interview, Cecilia Bartoli offers a personal account on what being at the helm of Europa Nostra means to her, highlighting the long-standing mission and action of Europa Nostra, and sharing some key priorities for the future. This comprehensive piece also covers topics such as funding models or policy development related to culture in Europe.
- Extensive interview with Europa Nostra's Executive President Hermann Parzinger, entitled "Cultural Heritage – A Vector for European Integration", published by the influential Serbian news magazine CorD Magazine (02/06/2023) (in English). In this interview, he speaks about our events held in Belgrade on 17-20 May, including the very first edition of the Belgrade Heritage Forum, and endangered heritage sites in the region, focusing on the Dečani Monastery in Kosovo* and the Belgrade Fortress in Serbia. Prof. Dr. Parzinger also reaffirms the importance of the Western Balkans to Europe as a whole and underlined the role heritage plays in bringing us closer together.

- Exclusive interview with Europa Nostra's Secretary General Sneška Quaedvlieg-Mihailović published by the leading Montenegrin daily newspaper Vijesti (20/08/2023) (printed edition and online edition), following her meeting with the President of Montenegro, Jakov Milatović, and her visit to Sveti Stefan and Milocer Park. In this interview, Europa Nostra's Secretary General emphasises: "Cultural and natural heritage is a public good and a strategic resource for a more sustainable, inclusive and beautiful future for every country, including Montenegro and the Western Balkans. Therefore, this treasure must not be sacrificed on the altar of private interests. Coastline and beaches are public spaces. Access to them is guaranteed by law to everyone. They cannot be privatised like it is today the case in Milocer Park. Citizens and civil society in Montenegro are rightfully campaigning against such an illegal practice."
- Opinion article entitled "Venezia capitale mondiale del patrimonio culturale senza frontiere", focusing on the European Cultural Heritage Summit 2023 in Venice, written by Europa Nostra's President Cecilia Bartoli, and published by the leading Italian daily newspaper La Stampa (28/09/2023) (in Italian);

Venezia capitale mondiale del patrimonio culturale senza frontiere

La città ospita fino al 30 settembre il Summit europeo, in concomitanza con i 60 anni di Europa Nostra. Attesa per l'assegnazione dei Premi del Patrimonio/Premi Europa Nostra 2023

CULTURAL HERITAGE
SUMMIT 2023
VENICE, 27–30 SEPTEMBER

Co-funded by the European Union

Si è aperto a Venezia il Summit Europeo del Patrimonio Culturale che si terrà fino al 30 settembre. Il vertice, che cade in concomitanza con i 60 anni di Europa Nostra, si concentra sui valori europei del futuro con un'attenzione particolare al ruolo svolto dall'istruzione nel rafforzare l'impegno civico, la cittadinanza e il senso di appartenenza.

- Extensive interview with Europa Nostra's President Cecilia Bartoli, entitled "Culture Must Be Placed at the Heart of Europe", published by the influential Serbian news magazine CorD Magazine (22/12/2023) (in English). Among the key topics of this interview are the European Cultural Heritage Summit 2023 and The Venice Manifesto for a European Cultural Citizenship. "Today, more than ever, we need to recognise and celebrate what can bring Europe's citizens and communities closer together. Culture – arts and heritage – are prime vectors for promoting stronger cohesion and social inclusion within our societies. We need to combat fragmentation and even hostility through solidarity and mutual support. It is for this reason that our Venice Manifesto insists that the concept of "European citizenship", which constitutes the very foundation of the European project, cannot be reduced to its political or economic dimensions," she emphasised.

3) Promotional Outputs 2023

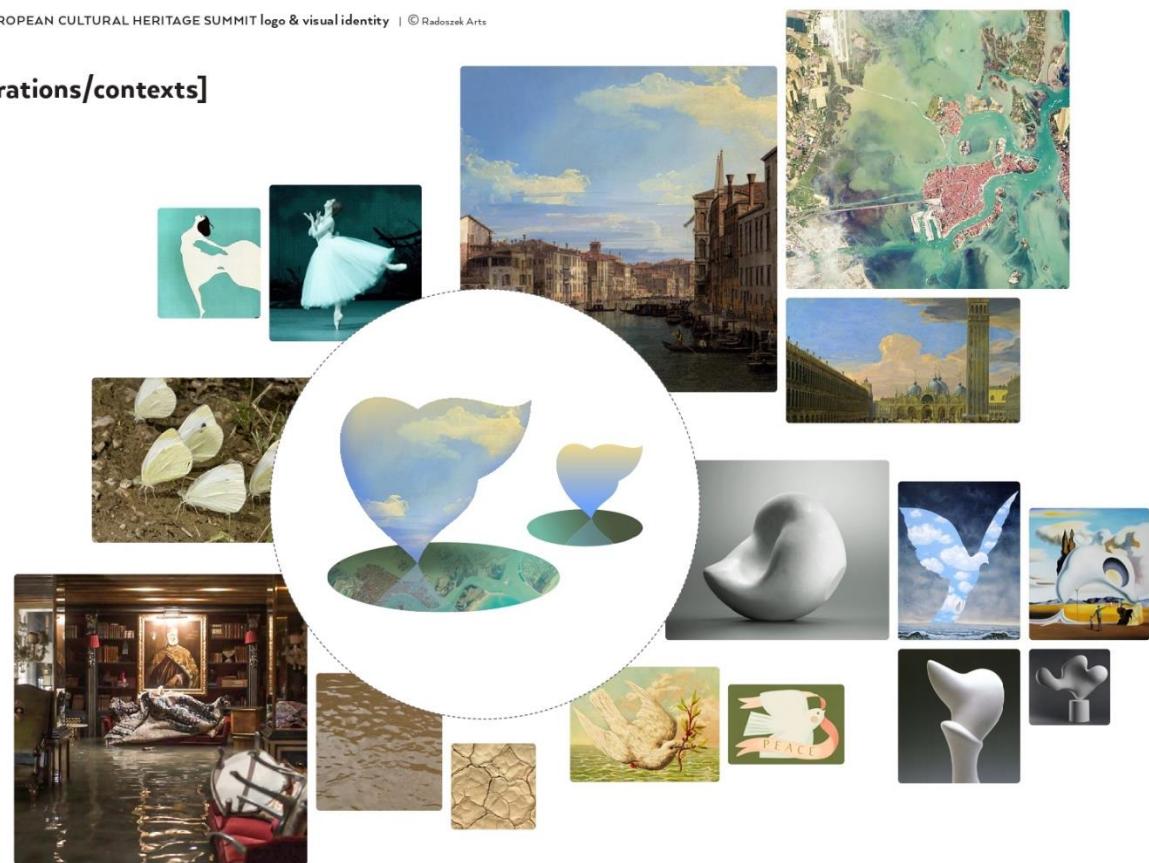

A variety of promotional tools, such as digital roll-up banners, e-banners, podcasts, photo albums and videos, targeting at least 50,000 people, were produced.

The visual identity of the European Cultural Heritage Summit 2023 was created by Radoszek Arts in close cooperation with Europa Nostra.

The Summit visual identity leverages the idea of cultural heritage serving as an indispensable rescue from defeat, crisis and danger.

Project: EUROPEAN CULTURAL HERITAGE SUMMIT logo & visual identity | © Radoszek Arts

[Inspirations/contexts]

The upper form in the logo can be interpreted as a surreal cloud, a refreshing mist or a scarf waving in the wind, and symbolises the intangible, quiet yet strong force that is culture. The shape appears to gently surface from the abyss of floodwaters, well preserved and flawless. Should one observe here a dove, a heart, a prima donna on her toes or even a butterfly seeking nutrients in mud, all connotations refer to the notion of peace, gentleness and hope.

The colours of the composition were inspired by the skies painted by masters like Canaletto or Belotto and the shades of the waters of the Venetian Lagoon. Both palettes create a contrasting layout, where serene blues and golds seem to light up the sky after the stormy weather.

Altogether this promising scene tells a story of the future revival, restoration and regeneration of the European way of life. It sends a message of hope, by which we will remain literally and lyrically weatherproof, emerging from every crisis under the wing of cultural heritage.

The Summit visual identity was nicely incorporated into all the Summit promotional material, including printed roll up banners, media wall and badges; digital programme booklets, newsletters, and visuals for social media, websites and videos, as well as animated logos.

- 5 digital publications were produced and published:
 - The Venice Manifesto for a European Cultural Citizenship (English - French - Italian)
 - European Heritage Summit 2023 Programme Booklet (English)
 - European Heritage Policy Agora 2023 Programme Booklet (English)
 - Creative Europe Networks Focus Meeting #2 Programme Booklet (English)
 - Europa Nostra Annual Report 2022 (English – French)
- 3 podcast episodes Europa Nostra at 60: A look into the past, present and future

In this podcast series, we reflect on Europa Nostra's history and the individuals who have shaped it over time. We take a moment to explore current activities and EU-funded projects carried out by the organisation. Moreover, we peer into the future, outlining priorities for both Europa Nostra and the broader heritage sector in the coming years.

This podcast was recorded during the European Cultural Heritage Summit 2023, and produced in collaboration with the Europa Nostra Heritage Hub in Kraków and Free Range Productions. The production and promotion of the podcast Europa Nostra at 60 received the financial support of La Fondation Hippocrène and the Creative Europe programme of the European Union.

- at least 90 e-banners were created and disseminated via the Europa Nostra website, digital newsletters and social media channels;
- 30 photo albums were published on Flickr and disseminated via the Europa Nostra website, digital newsletters and social media channels; and
- at least 10 videos were produced and published both on YouTube and Vimeo, and disseminated via the Europa Nostra website, digital newsletters and social media channels.

4) Outreach 2023

Europa Nostra organised and/or actively contributed to at least 80 heritage-related events and meetings (online, physical or hybrid format) held by stakeholders and the EU Institutions across Europe. News items about the most important events and meetings were prepared and published on the Europa Nostra website, including:
